

Lenten Calendar

2012

Wednesday

Thursday

Friday

Saturday

22 FEBRUARY
Ash Wed.

God's loving message has always been, "It's never too late to change."

Joel 2:12-18

23 One Thing is Certain

All people, even Christ, have suffered in life, but life does not end there.

Luke 9:22-25

24 Daily Bread

We need not fast from hearing God's Word or speaking his truth to the world.

Isaiah 58:1-9

25 Leave it Behind

When Jesus calls you by name, you don't need anything to follow him.

Luke 5:27-32

Sunday

Monday

Tuesday

26 Divine Archer

God's rainbow bounds through the sky, promising salvation for all.

Genesis 9:8-15

27 Rules of the Road

The Commandments keep us together in trust and service on our way.

Leviticus 19:1-18

28 How to Pray

When you pray this Lent, reflect on what you will say, not how you will say it.

Matthew 6:7-15

29 One Day

One Word, one death, is enough witness to God's redemption of the world.

Jonah 3:1-10

1 MARCH
Our Prayer

Lord, grant us whatever we need to keep our Lenten commitments.

Matthew 7:7-12

2 Justice for All

Do you owe anyone anything? Go, then, and repay your debts.

Matthew 5:20-26

3 God is Romantic

Unrequited love, though bittersweet, still unites; however, war divides.

Matthew 5:43-48

4 Sacrifice

In God's reckoning, Jesus was the price to pay for the souls of those who needed him.

Romans 8:31-34

5 Confession

This Lent, be honest about the consequences of your words and actions.

Daniel 9:4-10

6 You Can Run ...

God knows your intentions, but he also sees your daily works.

Isaiah 1:10, 16-20

7 Humble Thyself

The greatest power is given without reward, acknowledgment or credit.

Matthew 20:17-28

8 Living for Today?

Beyond this world is a kingdom of everlasting fullness and peace.

Jeremiah 17:5-10

9 Slavery

Don't sell yourself to anyone or anything. Jesus granted us freedom with his death.

Genesis 37:3-28

10 Give Thanks

Let your daily life be a song of praise to the God from which our life comes.

Psalms 103:1-4, 9-12

11 Sabbath

God created a day of rest for our sake. Honor him by setting aside some time for him today.

Exodus 20:1-17

12 Do Not Delay

If you discover God's presence today, why not go and stay with him?

2 Kings 5:1-15

13 Punished

Those who don't learn to forgive teach others to hold their deeds against them.

Matthew 18:21-35

14 Professor

Lord, your teachings are so wise, I want to spend my life learning and living them.

Psalms 147:12-20

15 Spring Thaw

Frozen inside? Open a window and let God's warmth into your home.

Psalms 95:1-2, 6-9

16 The Only Way

The road to God is the path of righteousness, the way to lasting joy.

Mark 12:28-34

17 Better than Mercy

Before turning to apologize today, turn your words and actions around.
